

I am appalled at Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to usurp regular programming for political propaganda, to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This is a horrifying example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Thank you.